5 Countdown to the Second Review Conference

Message from Colombian Vicepresident to all conference participants

The Cartagena Summit is the best scenario for all the State Parties of the Convention to publicly ratify our commitment to the definitive eradication of antipersonnel mines in the world. These artefacts represent a permanent threat to the exercise of people's basic rights, building a barrier against the communities' economic and social development.

Opening Ceremony

PHOTOGRAPH: cartagenatravel.com

Colombia has considered two possible formats for the opening ceremony: The first would be a closed event in the inner courtyards and halls of a Cartagena colonial house (Cartagena City Hall's Bastion)

The second would be an open-air ceremony that would take place in one of the colonial squares of the fortified city and adjoining streets (Aduana Square).

Airport – Air transportation

Avianca is the official airline of the Cartagena Summit on a Mine Free World and will offer you special attention and fares to all participants.

Avianca will set up for delegates special support in Avianca's international stations where the international flights to Colombia originate, including a special attention module in the counter for delegates and participants.

The delegations will be received in Rafael Núñez International Airport in the city of Cartagena de Indias by officials from the Protocol Direction, where all of the necessary elements for the immigration procedures and transportation to the hotels will be available.

Each country and/or delegation must announce the date, flight number and arrival and departure times of the delegation, in order to coordinate the respective reception and departure. We ask for this information to please be delivered at least twenty days prior to the beginning of the Conference.

Ground transportation

In order to facilitate the movements made by the delegates during the development of the Summit, Colombia will render support to each one of the participating delegations.

Additional transportation needs will be the responsibility of each delegation.

Given the characteristics of Cartagena de Indias, collective transportation has been foreseen for different displacements, detailed in the general program and in the Summits commented program.

Hotels

The Colombian Government has "reserved" rooms in Cartagena's main hotels, as to guarantee lodging of assistance to the Cartagena Summit on a Mine Free World.

Each one of the participants is responsible for the proceedings and payment of the lodging in the reserved hotels. The process of assignment, confirmation and payment of reservations of participants in Cartagena Hotels will be in charge of the Operator Agency appointed by Colombia, the temporary Union of AVIATUR - GEMATOURS, which is domiciled in the city of Cartagena.

The official Operator Agency will answer the reservation requests of the participants' rooms which are duly accredited in the strict order in which these are received.

Delegates have up to October 30th 2009 to define reservations, date in which the event's registrations will be closed. Nevertheless, requests will be received in later dates if necessary.
